

This 2 Shall Pass

- Have you lost a friend, loved one, spouse or pet?
- Have you experienced a life altering change such as job loss, retirement or a move that you are struggling to come to terms with?
- Did you expect to be at a better place in life then where you are now?
- Do you need to make an important decision but are stuck?
- Are you usually the "helper" or the "fixer" and now having a hard time asking for help yourself?

All of us go through times of doubt, loss and pain. It's not always easy to "bounce back" or "move on" as so many of our friends and family suggest. It's often difficult to move on without some constructive guidance. Marilyn Washington Harris of This 2 Shall Pass will lead you through a process that will help you resolve issues and move forward.

This 2 Shall Pass Personal Coaching will provide you with:

- Six (6) one - hour goal setting sessions with Marilyn in phone or in person
- A life changing and easy to follow plan that will ensure you reach your goals
- Follow Up sessions

About This 2 Shall Pass

Marilyn Washington Harris is a leading activist in the effort to eradicate and prevent violence against youth. She is the founder of the Khadafy Washington Foundation for Non-violence, Inc.; a motivational speaker and trainer of youth serving staff and professional "helpers." Today, Marilyn is focusing on supporting others through coaching. She is a trained personal coach and brings her rich and varied experience working with a wide variety of people to her practice at This 2 Shall Pass. ‘

Call 510- 510 830-8616

or visit www.marilynwashharris.com